OFFICE OF THE ADMINISTRATOR

JUN 17 1975

Honorable William Colby
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
5317 Bailey Place
Washington, DC 20016

Dear Mr. Colby:

I would like to extend a cordial invitation to you and your wife to attend as guests of NASA the launch of the Apollo spacecraft which will participate in the joint US-USSR Apollo Soyuz Test Project. The Apollo launch is scheduled for 3:50 p.m., EDT, on Tuesday, July 15, at the Kennedy Space Center, Florida.

We plan to have an aircraft leave Washington for Cape Canaveral, adjacent to Kennedy Space Center, on the morning of July 15 after the Soviet launch, which is scheduled for 8:20 a.m., EDT, that same morning. We would like to have you join us to view the Soviet launch on wide-screen television at the State Department's West Auditorium. Guests will be admitted through the 23rd Street entrance. After the Soyuz has been successfully launched, buses will take us from the State Department to Andrews Air Force Base for the flight to Cape Canaveral, expected to depart about 10:10 a.m. We would plan to return to Washington early the same evening, July 15. Buses will again be available to return to the State Department or downtown Washington.

I hope you can join us, and would appreciate hearing from you by June 20. Our Protocol Office (AC 202/755-0273) will be happy to answer any questions you may have.

Sincerely,

James C. Fletcher
